I joined a program for students and went to Australia. At that time, I was a junior high school student. Before going to Australia, I studied English hard. But English was difficult.

In Australia, I met Mike for the first time at his school. He was very kind to me, but I was afraid of speaking English. However, he always smiled and encouraged me. Soon I began to feel happy when I talked with him. About three weeks later, I went shopping with his family. I enjoyed talking with them, too.

Now I'm in Japan. I still send e-mails to Mike. He studies Japanese in Australia. He's going to come to Japan next month. He will stay here for one week.

He loves Japanese art, so we will talk about it. I want to talk with him in Japanese. I'll encourage him.
